Chamberlain's Explanation.

LONDON, Nov. 27 .- Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies, replying to incessantly repeated accusations that he is a shareholder in companies profiting by government contracts, has made the following statement to Mr. J. M. L. Wanklyn, member of Parliament for Central Bradford, with the intention of having it published: "I hold a very small portion of the capital of the Birmingham trust. I do not know and never have known anything about its investments, which, of course, are constantly changing. I did not know it had any investment in the company called 'The Tubes, Limited, and I did not know that the company was interested in government business. I was not aware of these facts, when I asserted, in the House of Commons that I had no interest, direct or indirect, in any firm supplying military stores to the government."

Movements of the Kaiser.

BERLIN, Nov. 27 .- Emperor William, it is understood, during his recent visit to Kiel to swear in naval recruits, inspected i Kiel harbor in connection with the plans for its enlargement. While his Majesty was at Kiel a score of newspaper men were in evidence, but all the information as to his speeches and doings there is doled out according to the pleasure of a certain court official intrusted with this duty. At Neville island the four-span bridge in course of construction was swept away during the night. It was being erected for the American Steel and Wire Company and was also to be used for passenger traffic by the Pittsburg & Lake Eric Railroad Company.

The flood was the result of a general fall of rain averaging two inches over the watersheds of the Allegheny and Monongahela valleys. This rain followed an average of three inches of precipitation which fell last week. If this rain had fallen during the months of January, February or March Pittsburg would have been visited by the worst flood in its history and the flood of 1884 would have no doubt been tude 36 north, longitude 39 west. The crew passed by several feet. The entire Ohio valley will probably now be flooded, as the reports show that the Ohio has risen rapidly at many places. STATE'S RIGHTS AGAIN.

Georgia Supreme Court Decision Makes An Issue Upon Them.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 27 .- The Supreme Court of Georgia to-day handed down decision affecting not only the war stamp tax, but involving a question of state's rights. The point involved was whether the special stamp required by act of Congress is admissible as evidence. The Su preme Court ruled that Congress, while has the right to levy taxes through a stamp act, has not the right to prescribe rules of evidence for state courts, which rival. Yes, I noticed the boom in American would be conceded if a document not bearing a federal stamp were denied admission

The Army of the Future. Dr. Conan Doyle, the English physician and novelist, accompanied the British forces in the campaign in South Africa. and he draws some lessons from his observations and experiences there which are as pertinent to the question of successful Jones, 10 to 1; Alee, 4 to 1; Our Lizzie, army organization in the United States, or even. anywhere else in the world, as they are in the United Kinkdom. The first and greatest lesson is "that there must be no more leaving of the army to the professional soldler and to the official, but that the general public must recognize that the defense of the empire is not the business of suicide to-day. He came to Florida eight-useless soldiers and increase the pay of the useful ones, for, as Dr. Doyle pertinently asks, "if a man is not a dead shot with a rifle what is the use of carrying him seven thousand miles in order to place him in the firing-line?" The army of the future, Dr. Doyle urges, must be drawn from a higher class than at present, and better paid-"we must insure that instead of the recruiting sergeant seeking the man, the man must seek the recruiting sergeant." The British campaign in South Africa, from the opening of the Boer war intil now, has been marked by many costly blunders and some humiliating failures. which have wrecked the reputations of several generals and dealt a severe blow to the military prestige of England. Dr. Doyle points out one way by which these errors may be avoided in the future. His suggestions appear both sensible and practicable. They are only the views of a medical man, it is true, but they are none the less worth heeding.

Wives Fight While Their Husbands Are Firing at Each Other.

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 27.-W. J. Bailey, railroad agent at Mango, Fla., shot and instantly killed Paul Huet, a Frenchman, in a duel at that place to-day. Mrs. Bailey followed her husband to the scene of the trouble armed with a pistol. Mrs. Huet followed her husband similarly armed. When the party met both men raised their guns, it is alleged, and Bailey shot first, killing Huet instantly. Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Huet were in the meantime fighting with revolvers, Mrs. Huet severely beating Mrs. Bailey over the head and painfully wounding her. After the homicide Bailey carried his wife home, gave her medical attention and then telegraphed to the officers to come for him. KID CARTER BESTED IN A SIX-ROUND BOUT AT CHICAGO.

Was Almost Unconscious in the Last Three Rounds, but Stood Up and Took His Punishment.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27 .- Tommy Ryan, who now claims Chicago as his home, defeated Kid Carter, of Brooklyn, in six rounds at Tattersall's to-night before a crowd of 5,000 people. Ryan had the best of the "milling" all the way, with the exception of two in tervals in the first and second rounds, when Carter sent him to the mat with right swings. Carter was beaten fearfully about the head and face and although he went the limit he fought the three last rounds without knowing much about what he was doing, except that there was a man in front of him whom he had to hit. He fought gamely to the last and his superior weight and strength was a heavy handicap to Ryan. The latter, however, was much too clever for Carter and got inside nearly every swing he made and blocked three out of five blows that were sent to his body. George Siler awarded the purse to Ryan amid loud cheers from the crowd, the applause being fully as much for the game boy from Brooklyn as for the victor. In the first round, when Carter sent Ryan to the floor there was considerable cheering. When the second round ended Carter's face was covered with blood. The third round concluded in the same way as far as Carter was concerned. Ryan was laughing at his opponent. In the fourth round Carter began to get groggy, but held up wonderfully. At the close of the fifth he was half unconscious. In the sixth Ryan landed a left on the jaw and right to the body, and sent a left to the face. Carter rushed, landing right and left to Carter landed a left on the jaw Ryan put a hard right to the mouth. Ryan sent his left to the nose twice in succession, Carter clinching. LETTER FROM TAFT.

He Says American Business Methods Are Needed in the Philippines,

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 27.-A private letter has been received here from Judge Taft, president of the Philippine commission, in which he speaks of the resources and needs of those islands. The letter, in part, follows:

"I have your letter in which you indi cate that in the campaign a strong point have been for six rounds between Joe is being made against the present policy of Sherlock and Eugene McGovern at 125 | the administration by dwelling on the expense which these islands are likely to be to the government, and the very small Harry Griffin and Leary Gleason, local return which the people are likely to get ly pacified they are far and away the best possessions in the Orient for the purpose of trade and development. Their climate is better than the climate of any tropical country I know, and the capacity for agriopment would seem to be unlimited. Even with the unsettled condition of the councoming into the harbor of Manila, excluding the government transports, is double what it ever was in Spanish times, and the same thing is true of the interisland With the construction of roads and railroads through these islands the opportunities for development cannot be throughout. It was the first dicision ever exaggerated. These people are a people given against Harris and the crowd re- who take to the luxuries of life, enjoy good clothes and comforts: and markets among them for cotton goods, for canned for flour, for petroleum and for machinery can be created in a wonderfully short time. One of the things that is needed here is the introduction of American business methods. The establishment of two or three business houses here, retail and wholesale, carrying into business the same methods that prevail at home, would do wonders for the business standards of these islands."

Helen Gould's Gift to Soldiers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 .- Miss Helen Gould accompanied by her maid, has purchased over $3,000 worth of clothing and toilet articles, which she has ordered dispatched to the distributing officer of the United States army at Manila, Philippine islands. The goods will be presented with Helen Gould's compliments and Christmas greeting to the New Yorkers of the troops in the Philippines. Miss Gould personally selected every article and in each case bought the best quality obtainable. She carefully examined the clothing ordered to see, she explained, that it was of suit-

Bitter Fight Between Missionary and Anti-Missionary Politicians.

Correspondence of the Associated Press. HONOLULU, Nov. 20., via San Francisco, Nov. 27.-The election in Hawaii has day. by no means brought an end of politics, but has rather given opportunity for the outbreak of a more bitter fight than ever between the so-called missionary and antimissionary wings, or Dole and anti-Dole factions of the Republican party. Each is busily accusing the other of having knifed the ticket and helped to cause the Republican defeat and Independent suc-

Loebenstein claims that there is no law under which the election of a delegate could be accomplished, territorial election laws to cover the point not having beer enacted yet. Attorney General Dole refused to take any steps on the ground that Congress is the only judge of the qualifications of its members, and to-day First Circuit Judge Humphreys also refused to summon Wilcox to make an answer to the issues raised. There is general satisfaction throughout Hawaii at the re-election of McKinley.

The United States transport Sherman, Robert W. Wilcox, the Independent, who goes to Washington as delegate, is quoted as saying that the result of the election is better, in his opinion, for Hawaii than the contrary result would have been.
